TWIN FALLS AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, SOUTH CENTRAL PUBLIC HEALTH DISTRICT AND ST. LUKE'S TO HOST VIRTUAL TOWN HALL ON COVID-19 VACCINES

Twin Falls, ID – South Central Public Health District residents and employers will have the opportunity to listen in and ask questions directly to community and health leaders on the COVID-19 vaccines and distribution plans via a Virtual Town Hall on Wednesday, March 10, 2021 at 3 pm.

Panelists will be Logan Hudson, South Central Public Health District and Dr. Joshua Kern, St. Luke's.

Panel discussion and the question and answer period will be facilitated by Shawn Barigar, President/CEO for the Twin Falls Area Chamber of Commerce.

People can connect to the live Virtual Town Hall online at <https://event.webinarjam.com/channel/VirtualTownHall2> [event.webinarjam.com]. Viewing only of the event will also be available on South Central Public Health District's YouTube channel.

Town Hall participants are encouraged to submit questions in advance to shawn@twinfallschamber.com and may also ask questions via chat during the Town Hall.

The Virtual Town Hall will last about an hour.
